

“The Manifestation of the Spirit”

1 Corinthians 12:4-11

Verse seven is the basis for why we need to know as much about the Holy Spirit as we can, and what purpose He holds in the life of the believer – “to profit withal.” Although this won’t be an exhaustive study on “Pneumatology,” it is important we set a framework, or base, for what the next three chapters teach. If we don’t have a firm understanding of the basics of the doctrine of the Holy Spirit then our interpretation of this, and other texts like it, will be prone to being “carried about with every wind of doctrine” (Eph. 4:13) that comes along.

There are three terms that are important to understand when it comes to this topic – the “baptism of the Holy Spirit” (which we will address in detail in verse 13), the “indwelling of the Spirit,” and the “sealing of the Spirit” – both of these latter terms deal with the same issue with slightly different purposes. All three deal with something that takes place at the moment of salvation and is a “one-time event,” unlike the filling of the Spirit which happens over time, so to speak.

We will look at the indwelling of the Spirit and the sealing of the Spirit separately, even though they speak to the same event.

Dr. Harold L. Willmington gives this brief definition of the indwelling:

“It is that sovereign act whereby the Holy Spirit at the command of Christ (John 14:16, 26) actually enters and dwells within each repenting sinner (...1 Cor. 6:19; Gal. 3:2; 4:6; 1 Thess. 4:8; 1 John 3:24).”

John 14:16

16 And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;

John 14:26

26 But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

1 Corinthians 6:19

19 What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?

Galatians 3:2

2 This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

Galatians 4:6

6 And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father.

1 Thessalonians 4:8

8 He therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.

1 John 3:24

24 And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

Dr. Willmington gives the following illustration of something that happened in his own ministry to illustrate the importance of us understanding what it means, in a real-world setting, to be indwelt with the Holy Spirit of God:

Just prior to attending seminary in the late fifties I was pastoring a rural Baptist church in western Illinois. One Saturday afternoon, having nothing better to do (being unmarried at the time), I drove to a nearby town for a quick sandwich and was walking back to my car when, to my shock, spied the treasurer of our little church seated on a barstool in a tavern near the restaurant I had just left. Not knowing exactly what to do, I did nothing until the next day. After the Sunday morning service George (our treasurer) and I remained behind to record the attendance and count the offering. Feeling led by God I said:

HLW: "George, let me ask you a question. Do you believe in the doctrine of eternal salvation?"

George: "Oh, yes, pastor, I surely do."

HLW: "Then you believe the Holy Spirit will never leave you?"

George: "Absolutely, that's what the Bible teaches."

HLW: "In other words, the Holy Spirit accompanies us everywhere we go – is that right?"

George: "Definitely, but say, preacher, why all these questions?"

HLW: "George, please correct me if I'm wrong, but I thought I saw the Holy Spirit in a tavern, seated on a barstool in Pittsfield, Illinois, around 2:00 p.m. yesterday afternoon."

With these words, George began to weep and acknowledge his sin. I am happy to report it was then my pleasure to kneel at the altar with him as he made things right with God!

That's what is meant when the Bible speaks of the believer having the Holy Spirit dwelling in them.

Although there are numerous verses in the New Testament that speak of the New Testament believer being indwelt by the Spirit, we will only look at a few of them as more of an overview of the principles of the doctrine rather than an in-depth study.

One thing to note at this point: Old Testament saints were not indwelt as we are today, nor were the Apostles until after Jesus ascended to heaven and the Holy Spirit came in demonstration of power, as recorded in Acts chapter two. With saints prior to the Ascension, the Holy Spirit worked differently, as seen by David in Psalm 51. God's presence was with them in the Shekinah (Glory) rather than in the Person of the Spirit, as He is today.

Psalm 51:11

¹¹ Cast me not away from thy presence; and take not thy holy spirit from me.

Lewis Sperry Chafer (Major Bible Themes) says this on that issue:

Although the Spirit of God was with men in the Old Testament, the source of their new life, and the means of spiritual victory, there is no evidence that all believers in the Old Testament were indwelt by Him. This is made plain by the silence of the Old Testament on this doctrine and by the express teaching of Jesus Christ, contrasting the Old Testament situation with the present age in the words, "he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you" (John 14:17). The indwelling of the Spirit in every believer is a distinctive feature of the present age which will be repeated in the millennial kingdom but is found in no other period.

Part 1 – The Indwelling Spirit

I. FOR HIM – JOHN 14:16-17; 1 JOHN 2:27 (CF. JOHN 14:26)

John 14:16-17

¹⁶ And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;

1 John 2:27

²⁷ But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him.

John 14:26

²⁶ But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

A. One primary purpose – if not THE primary purpose – of the indwelling Holy Spirit in the heart and life of the believer is to bring glory to God. As “the Spirit of truth” He is given to the believer to guide us in the truth of God’s word so that, ultimately, we can point people to Christ with that knowledge.

1 Peter 3:15

¹⁵ But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear:

B. In the text in the Gospel of John, Jesus is teaching the Apostles an important truth about what happens after He's gone. He knew they would be very troubled concerning the subject (14:27 shows this) so He gives this great lesson that has become (and was then) one of the most important doctrines for the New Testament believer.

1. One of the first things seen in John 14:16 is not only that the Holy Spirit takes the place of Christ as "another Comforter," but He does so "for ever." The indwelling of the Spirit, once abiding, will never leave – can never leave. This is one reason I believe, as do many other conservative Bible scholars, that the indwelling takes place at salvation, and also supports the truth of Scripture that we can't lose either one – the indwelling Spirit nor our eternal salvation.
2. Another point to be seen from verse 17 is two-fold as it related to the time of the Apostles in particular:
 - a) "For he dwelleth with you"
 - (1) There are at least two words in the Greek translated "dwelleth" in the verses under review. This one (μένω) and the one in the text in Romans eight and Second Timothy one (to be considered in the next two points).
 - (2) This word means to abide or remain – as Thayer has it, "not to depart, to continue to be present." Even though the Lord Jesus wouldn't be with them in person for much longer, He is promising them they would never be without His Spirit (and, in consideration of the "Three-in-One" of the Trinity, they wouldn't be without Him).

- (3) Coupled with the words "with you" - παρ υμιν μενει – this clause shows that the Holy Spirit, for the Apostles, was there with them in the Person of Jesus Christ (which is, in part, why He is called "the Spirit of Christ" in Rom. 8:9 and 1 Pet. 1:11, among other places where "his Spirit" is mentioned).

A.T. Robertson: With you (par' humin). "By your side," "at home with you," not merely "with you" (meth' humōn) "in the midst of you."

b) "And shall be in you"

- (1) The verb εσται – "shall be" is in the future tense (of the verb εσομαι), again pointing to the fact that the other Comforter wouldn't come until Jesus had ascended back to heaven after the resurrection.

- (2) Once the Holy Spirit came in power, as recorded in the book of Acts, He would be found "in" them – taking up residence, resting in them.

C. The Apostle John, in his very personal letter that we call "First John," addresses this doctrine of the indwelling Spirit as the "Spirit of Truth," showing that the Spirit teaches all things – again, for the purpose of showing Christ to others.

II. FOR US – ROM. 8:1-17

Romans 8:9

⁹ But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

Romans 8:11

¹¹ But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

- A. A principle purpose (if not the primary purpose) of the indwelling Spirit is to give us victory over sin and the old life. To “quicken us” (make us alive after death) to live a life for Christ rather than for self.

- B. The text in Romans is the primary text for the Spirit-filled life and clearly states that if we do not have “the Spirit of Christ” then we are “none of his.” In other words, every believer is indwelt by the Holy Spirit of God or we are not truly born again.

- C. The verbs used in verse nine for “dwell” (οἰκεῖ) and “have not” (οὐκ ἔχει) are present-active-indicative verbs. In this form, it indicates continuous action. Applied here, from the moment of our salvation, the Spirit of Christ is dwelling in us, and He will remain there (we will show this when we look at the sealing of the Holy Spirit) until we are in heaven.

D. The word for "dwell" in verse nine (οἰκέω) is also the root of the word for "dwelleth" (ἐνοικέω) in verse eleven.

1. The root word (οἰκέω) simply means to reside, to dwell, to abide. It has its etymology in the Greek word for house (οἶκος), or a dwelling. In this form, as Strong puts it, "by implication to cohabit."
2. The word for "dwelleth" (ἐνοικέω) is a present active participle – a verbal adjective (a verb acting as an adjective). It is the same root verb as that for "dwell" earlier in the verse, and in verse nine. The first part of this word has the primary preposition ἐν attached – a word denoting fixed position. In relation to the indwelling Spirit of Christ, at the point of salvation He took up fixed residence in our heart (in our life) and this text shows that the Lord wants His influence as our "cohabitant" to guide and control our lives.
3. The two Greek words that we see translated as "dwell" or "dwelleth" (dwelling) are very similar but they each teach a unique truth about the indwelling Spirit that will help us understand what the doctrine teaches.

E. Many years ago (at least 30), one of the first books I preached through was the book of Romans. I made some observations then on this text (through verse 13) that point to seven new things that we received when we received Christ as our Savior. I've said often, we got more than heaven when we die when we got saved, and this text demonstrates that truth.

1. We have a new walk – vs. 1, 4-5
 - a) The Old Walk was fashioned after the lusts of the flesh – Gal. 5:19-21.
 - b) The New Walk is fashioned after the steps of Christ – 1 Peter 2:21-25.
 - c) The Holy Spirit is with us, guiding us on the path we should walk, to make sure we don't go astray – "conviction."

2. We have a new life – vs. 2, 6, 10, 13
 - a) The Old Life was one of sin and death – a life that will end in an eternity in hell – Rev. 21:8.
 - b) The New Life is one of peace – a life that will end in an eternity in heaven.
 - c) When saved, the Holy Spirit imparts this new life automatically – we do nothing to earn it.

3. We have a new power – vs. 3-4
 - a) The Old Power was one in which we tried to have on our own - in the law, that could not save our soul.
 - b) The New Power is one over sin and the grave – 1 Cor. 15:54-58.
 - c) This new power comes from the Holy

Spirit's work, and it gives us the ability to witness – Acts 1:8.

4. We have a new peace – vs. 6-8

- a) This is somewhat of a misnomer, in that before salvation we had no peace – we thought we did, but in reality, we did not.
- b) The new peace is both with God – salvation – and of God – living – Rom. 5:1 cf. Phil. 4:7.
- c) Without the Holy Spirit within us we'd have no peace. An unsaved person is spoken of as having enmity with God – being an enemy of God.

5. We have a new Possessor – vs. 9-10

- a) The Bible says we are children of either God or the Devil – one of the two possesses us – John 8:44; Matt. 6:24.
- b) Before salvation our possessor was Satan.
- c) After salvation, our possessor is God the Father (John 10:28), because of Christ's work on the cross, through the indwelling Holy Spirit.

6. We have a new guarantee – vs. 11

- a) The Bible says we are already condemned to hell if we're not saved – guaranteed, as if we were already there – John 3:18.
- b) With the Holy Spirit comes a new guarantee - that of being resurrected, of heaven – Eph. 1:13-14.
- c) The same Spirit that raised up Jesus will raise us up also – the guarantee being just as He was, so will we be – He's in heaven, so will we be – John 14:1-3 – a new guarantee of a new home.

7. We have a new creditor – vs. 12

- a) When we were lost, we owed our soul to the devil, so to speak. He is the ruler of the flesh, and we were debtors to the flesh.
- b) When saved, the Holy Spirit gave us a new creditor – only it doesn't say we owe Him anything – the debt has been forgiven – marked "Paid In Full."

III. FOR OTHERS – 2 TIM. 1:13-14

2 Timothy 1:13-14

¹³ Hold fast the form of sound words, which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

¹⁴ That good thing which was committed unto thee keep by the Holy Ghost which dwelleth in us.

A. We have seen the doctrine of edification on more than one occasion in our study of First Corinthians, and it is seen in this point of the indwelling Spirit as well. It is for the furtherance of the gospel and for the edification of the saints – the building up of the faith of others.

B. The word for "dwelleth" here (ἐνοικέω in root form) is the same as in Rom. 8:11 – a present active participle meaning to reside in. We are indwelt, in part, to help others grow – with the idea of doing so for our entire Christian life.

C. In our study of the Pastoral Epistles (on this text, two and half years ago now), we spent some time on the two verses that make up this context (vs. 13-14). They deal with "the gift" mentioned in verse six of the chapter under review. That "gift" is the spiritual gift that Timothy had – that of pastor/teacher (Eph. 4:11). Following is a brief review of what was covered in those messages. Although what's given here will be as it relates to the pastoral ministry, this is true of every believer in the church.

So, in dealing with our spiritual gift, we are to:

1. Hold it fast – vs. 13a

"Hold fast the form of sound words, which thou hast heard of me..."

a) "Hold fast"

Part of the preacher's job is to make sure that what he believes, and what he knows, he uses on a continual basis. The verb tense used here is one that indicates a continuous action – to continue on in what he knows until the Lord takes him home.

b) "The form"

Applied to the pastor and his teaching and preaching, and as it applies to his life in general, Paul was telling Timothy that he was to have firmly impressed in his mind the basics of his belief so that he would be able to formulate an answer to those that would ask of his biblical belief based on what he had secured to memory.

c) "Of sound words"

Timothy, and every preacher, and every Christian in using his spiritual gift, is to know why they believe what they believe, and be so grounded in that belief that no matter what comes their way, nothing can lose their mooring that is established in Christ through the teaching of the Bible.

d) "Which thou hast heard of me"

We, as preachers, have a responsibility to make sure those that want to learn the Bible have the opportunity to hear, and that they hear the right things as God would have them.

2. Use it right – vs. 13b

"In faith and love which is in Christ Jesus"

Our spiritual gift, no matter what it is, must be used in the proper way according to the Scriptures or it will cease to be a tool for the Lord and will eventually become something of which the devil can take advantage

3. Guard it tightly – vs. 14

a) "That good thing" – going back to verse 6 and the "gift of God" – it is a good thing that God has given to us in the possession of not only the Holy Spirit but also our spiritual gift.

b) Along with that "gift of God," the good thing spoken of is also referring to the sound doctrine which Timothy was entrusted with, and his teaching of it as a pastor – his spiritual gift. The application is, that no matter our gift, it is a "good thing" that we've been given and entrusted with.

2 Corinthians 5:19–20

19 To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

- c) The words "which was committed unto thee" are in reference to the laying on of the hands of the presbyter of Timothy when the gift was made known to him. By definition it means "a deposit left with or entrusted to one's charge."

1 Timothy 6:20

20 O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called:

- d) The gift and doctrines he was entrusted with he was to "keep."

(1) What he was to keep was the "good thing" – literally "that good deposit."

(2) The Lord has made an investment in us when He saved us (our spiritual gift) and that investment is to be guarded and kept in a secure place.

- e) The only way we can secure the "gift of God" and the doctrines we've been entrusted with is "by the Holy Ghost which dwelleth in us."

Conclusion: As a believer, we are indwelt with the Holy Spirit – He takes up residence, so to speak, in our heart (our mind – he affects our thinking and actions) and guides us in life. More than that, however, as it relates to the context of this text, He imparts to us our spiritual gift(s) and guides us in their use. As we grow in the Lord, and our gifts become more usable by Him, we will become more like Christ in all we do. The indwelling is for Him, in that respect. It is for us in that He helps us live for Christ and effectively use that spiritual gift. And it is for others as we use those gifts to make a difference in their lives.

Part 2 – The Sealing with the Spirit

In the first part of this series, as it relates to the context of First Corinthians 12-14 and “the manifestation of the Spirit” in the life of the believer, we looked at what is meant by the “indwelling of the Spirit” in our heart (mind). In this part, we will look at another aspect of the indwelling in what is referred to in the New Testament as the “sealing of the Spirit.” Although we are looking at them as separate doctrines, they are part of the same subset of doctrines under the umbrella doctrine of Pneumatology – the doctrine of the Holy Spirit. As pointed out previously, the baptism of (with) the Holy Spirit, the indwelling of the Spirit, and the sealing of (with) the Spirit all take place at the moment of salvation.

In the study of the indwelling of the Spirit we saw that the purpose of that indwelling was for Him (for the glory of God), for us (in equipping us to exercise our spiritual gift, among other things), and for others (in edifying the body of Christ, as well as pointing lost people to Him). The sealing of the Spirit is primarily for us for the purpose of giving us the peace we need in life to live our life the way God intends without the distraction of the Devil being able to keep us burdened with the past life of sin. Knowing we are sealed will allow us to serve Him and help others.

I. THE AGENT – 2 CORINTHIANS 1:21-22

“God...Who hath also sealed us...”

A. The One doing the sealing is God. Although this seems redundant at best, it is still very important that we understand this point because there are many that believe the agent of the imparting of the Spirit is man. This is taken from the book of Acts where the Apostle Paul laid his hands on people and they "received the Holy Ghost."

Acts 19:1-6

¹ And it came to pass, that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts came to Ephesus: and finding certain disciples, ² He said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost.

³ And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, Unto John's baptism.

⁴ Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus.

⁵ When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

⁶ And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied.

That text, as well as other similar ones are to be taken within the context of the book of Acts, and the early stages of the church. There were things done then that are no longer to be done, or done in that specific way, because we have a finished Scripture (something we will address when we study First Corinthians 13).

B. It is necessary to define two terms used in this text, as well as in a few other passages that relate to this doctrine of the sealing of the Spirit – “sealed” and “earnest.”

1. The word for “sealed” in the various texts that we will consider in this study – σφραγίζω in its root form – carries with it three particular principles, or meanings, that are applicable to the believer being “sealed” with the Holy Spirit.

a) Certifies the security of the content or item

When one thinks of a “seal” at the time of the writing of the New Testament, the first thing that would come to mind is that of the wax seal on a letter with the ruler’s signet ring marked in the wax. In this use, the word means “to seal, close up and make fast with a seal signet such as letters or books so that they may not be read” until the appointed time by the appointed person (Zodhiates).

(1) This is also the use of the Hebrew word (סֹתֵם) for “seal.” This use is clearly seen in First Kings 21:8 and in Daniel 6:17 when Daniel was thrown into the lion’s den.

1 Kings 21:8

⁸ So she wrote letters in Ahab’s name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters unto the elders and to the nobles that were in his city, dwelling with Naboth.

Daniel 6:17

¹⁷ And a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that the purpose might not be changed concerning Daniel.

(2) This is also seen at the grave of our Lord when the soldiers were told to make "the sepulchre sure, sealing the stone, and setting a watch."

(3) In application to the believer being sealed with the Holy Spirit, He is that seal that secures the item until such time as it is appointed to be opened, and by the appropriate Person. That time, event, and Person would be at the return of Christ for His bride at the Rapture. The verses in Ephesians that we will study later in this message show this - "unto the day of redemption" (Eph. 4:30).

b) Certifies ownership of the content or item

(1) Not only does the seal point to the securing of the document or the item, but it also marks ownership.

2 Timothy 2:19

19 Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.

(2) "A seal is a token assuring the possession of property to one; 'sealed' here answers to 'stablisheth us'" in verse 21 of the text under review (J-F-B).

2 Corinthians 1:21

²¹ Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God;

1 Corinthians 9:2

² If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord.

(3) The Holy Spirit, as the seal, shows that the believer is now, and forever, the property of the King of kings. That may not fit our political correctness today and may sound way out of touch with sociological norms, but it is a very biblical truth. There's a verse we've studied previously in First Corinthians (that we will come back to again in the next part of this series to refresh our memory on the subject) that clearly shows this.

1 Corinthians 6:19–20

¹⁹ What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?

²⁰ For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

c) Certifies the truth of the content or item

(1) John Gill gives the following:

[S]ometimes a seal is used to certify, make sure, or assure the truth of a thing; see John 3:33 in which sense the word "sealing" is used here, and intends that assurance which God gives his people of their interest in his love, and the covenant of grace; of their election of God, and redemption by Christ; of their interest in Christ, and union with him; of their justification by him, and adoption through him; of the truth of grace in their hearts, their perseverance in it, and sure and certain enjoyment of eternal glory. The persons thus sealed are not carnal and unconverted persons, only believers in Christ, and these, after they commence such; the seal by which they are sealed, is not any of the ordinances, as circumcision under the Old Testament, or baptism, or the Lord's supper under the New; for these are no seals, nor are they ever so called; but the Spirit of God himself, as the Holy Spirit of promise; for the same who, in the next clause, is called the earnest, is the seal; see Eph. 1:13.

John 3:33

³³ He that hath received his testimony hath set to his seal that God is true.

(2) The seal of the Holy Spirit on the life of the believer is to show that what God has said is true – both of the past, of the present, and of the future. If the past truths of Scripture can be determined as factually accurate and true then we can be equally confident that all that is said of the future in eternity is also factually accurate and true.

2. The word for “earnest” - ἀρραβών in its root form – is one for earnest money or a pledge – “something which stands for part of the price and paid beforehand to confirm the transaction” (Zodhiates).

- a) It is still a word used today when you agree to purchase a home. You put down “earnest money” as the initial down payment to secure the home for future use.
- b) This word is only used three times in the New Testament and each time it is reference to the Holy Spirit sealing the believer. The first use is in the text under review in this point. The others are 2 Cor. 5:5 and Eph. 1:14.

2 Corinthians 5:5

⁵ Now he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.

Ephesians 1:14

¹⁴ Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.

- c) The Geneva Bible notes simply state this: “An earnest is whatever is given to confirm a promise.” How simple yet profound. Since God is the agent by which we are given the Holy Spirit, and since God cannot lie, and He has promised us an eternity with Him, then we can be absolutely sure that what He has said of the life of the believer here, as well as that in eternity, will come to pass exactly as He promised.

Titus 1:2

² In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began;

Numbers 23:19

¹⁹ God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good?

C. Another point to make – a very critical point – is that the Holy Spirit is not the agent DOING the sealing, but the Holy Spirit IS the seal. God the Father is the Agent doing the sealing, as it were.

II. THE ACTION – EPHESIANS 1:13-14

“Ye were sealed...”

A. The action He took was to seal. This action, as has been pointed out several times in our study thus far, happened at the point of salvation. Although these doctrines are shown in a sequence, of sorts, we need to be cautious in inserting any amount of time between the events in the sequence.

“The sealing was the result of believing, and that was the result of hearing the gospel” (Barnes). Although faith is not automatic when one hears the gospel, the sealing is automatic once a person believes unto salvation.

Romans 10:14-17

¹⁴ How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

¹⁵ And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

¹⁶ But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, Lord, who hath believed our report?

¹⁷ So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

B. The phrase "after that ye believed" does not mean that the sealing took place at a point yet future following belief. The verb used – πιστεύσαντες – is in a form (aorist active participle) showing a simple action in the past; a fact of action, if you would. The sealing of the Holy Spirit could not take place until we believed, but from that moment on, until the believe is with the Lord, we are sealed.

C. Verse fourteen shows the permanency while on this earth of the Holy Spirit's indwelling – "until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory." The Holy Spirit is the down payment on God's promise of an eternity for the believer with Him.

III. THE ACTIVITY – EPHESIANS 4:30-5:2

"Ye are sealed..."

A. The activity, or the purpose, in our lives while on earth is to allow us to live right and equip us with the tools to do so.

B. The context of this verse runs from verse seventeen of chapter four through verse two of chapter five. This context speaks to the walk of the believer in Christ. The Holy Spirit is the power that indwells us that makes it possible for us to do just that. As stated often, we received much more than heaven when we die when we got saved.

C. In this activity of the Holy Spirit in the believer's life, there is a point made in verse thirty that is important. If we aren't careful to walk "circumspectly," as Eph. 5:15 states, we are going to be far more likely to grieve the Holy Spirit by failing to follow God and His word.

Ephesians 5:15

¹⁵ See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise,

1. To walk "circumspectly" is to "literally, look how exactly ye walk" (Vincent). Carries the idea of being careful how we walk. "[T]ake heed not only that your walk be exact, strict, but also of what sort that strictness is – not only that you have a rule, and keep to it, but that that rule be the best one" (Alford).
2. To "grieve" the Spirit (something we are told not to do) is to cause Him sorrow.

"The Pulpit Commentary" records this on the clause, "And grieve not the holy Spirit of God:

Very solemn and emphatic counsel. The name is given with unusual fullness, in order to show the magnitude of the sin— τὸ Πνεῦμα τὸ ἅγιον τοῦ Θεοῦ, "The Spirit, the Holy Spirit of God." By an anthropopathy the Spirit is represented as grieved by such treatment as would grieve us—e.g. when his work is obstructed, when sin is trifled with, when Deity is treated carelessly, when place is given to the devil, when the spirit of the world is cherished. Those who act thus resemble the Sanballats and Tobiahs of the time of the restoration, who hindered the rebuilding of the temple and the restoration of order and prosperity. When the Holy Spirit would urge consecration, separation from the world, holy exercises, active service, our indolent and worldly hearts are liable to rebel and vex him. To grieve a parent heedlessly is a great sin; how much more to grieve the Spirit of God?

Conclusion: In the manifestation of the Spirit in our lives, as we consider the indwelling of the Spirit and the sealing of the Spirit for His work through us, we must remember that it is all for Him, for us, and for others.

Part 3 – “Your Body Is the Temple”

1 Corinthians 6:19-20

In this message we will consider more on the indwelling Spirit of God with the emphasis on what would be considered location of that dwelling – in our body (our mind, our heart, our emotions).

This text from First Corinthians six was covered in a broader context that went back to verse twelve of that chapter and dealt with the fact that the believer is “joined unto the Lord,” and because of that we are to live our life with the Lord in control. As is seen in the portion of this letter to the Corinthians that we call chapters 12, 13, and 14, the Holy Spirit is the One that is to control us, that joins us with Christ, and as we exercise our spiritual gifts, the closer we are drawn to Christ in that union.

There are some that say these two verses are not dealing with anything other than the strict context within which they appear – dealing only with fornication. That is clearly NOT the case in this instant. This is not just speaking to fornication, as the greater context shows, but is a much broader, applicable text to show to the believers in the church at Corinth that they do not have a right to do what they want with their physical bodies since those physical bodies now belong to the Lord as the Master of them. If that be the case (found in the words “know ye not”), then the entirety of applicable Scripture falls under the purview (the scope of the influence or concerns of something) of this text.

Again, we find the rhetorical question, “What? Know ye not...?” This was to grab their attention and demonstrate that they should in no way be participating in this particular sin of fornication (as discussed in that chapter) and gives the reason why.

The reference here to the body being the “temple of the Holy Ghost” is referencing something different than what was seen in 1 Cor. 3:16-17, where the church, the body of Christ as a whole, in which God has chosen to meet with His children was called “the temple of God.” Here, it is the individual believer that makes up that body of Christ (the church) that is seen as being indwelt by the Spirit.

1 Corinthians 3:16–17

¹⁶ Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

¹⁷ If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

When considered in the context of the indwelling Spirit of God, and that Spirit being the seal (and the “earnest”) to guarantee the presence and power of God in the life of the believer, this text from chapter six both lays the framework for that principle, as well as confirms that principle.

I. WE ARE HIS

“Your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God” [that is, the Holy Ghost, not our bodies]

A. “Your body” – “Body” (σῶμα) – an organized whole made up of parts and members. This speaks to our physical body, the part of man that can be seen with the eye.

B. “Is” – present indicative – a statement of fact occurring right now, in real time. Our body is, from the point of salvation, and continuing without break or deviation, the temple of the Holy Ghost.

C. "The temple" (ναός) – the inner sanctuary of the Temple. There is another word for "temple" (ἱερόν) that encompasses all of the property of the Temple – the courts, grounds, enclosures, and the building itself. This word used here (and in 1 Cor. 3:16-17) is speaking of a specific place within the temple – the inner sanctuary where God (or, in the city of Corinth and their false gods, the image of their god was set up) would meet with the high priest and commune with man.

D. "Of the Holy Ghost"

1. The dwelling place of the Holy Spirit is in us, as believers, and as such, when we gather together in a "worship service," and operate as a church body, we become the dwelling place of the Holy Spirit (that's what 3:16-17 speaks to) on earth.
2. This verse clearly teaches the indwelling of the Holy Spirit in the very person of the believer once they are saved (the verb "are bought" in the next verse show this timing) – at the moment of salvation, not as a secondary work of grace or a second blessing.

E. "Which is in you"

1. The words "which is" are in italics in the KJV and are supplied by the translators to facilitate a clearer reading. In the Greek, the literal translation would be "the temple of the Holy Ghost in you" – making a definitive statement of fact.

2. "In you" – the primary idea of this word is that of rest or residence – the Holy Spirit takes up residence, or rests, within us when we are saved.

Romans 8:9

⁹ But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

Galatians 4:6

⁶ And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father.

John 14:16-17

¹⁶ And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;

¹⁷ Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

F. "Which ye have of [from] God" – the Holy Spirit is a gift from God that He has given to us so we can fellowship with Him and learn of Him.

John 16:13

¹³ Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come.

II. WE ARE HIS BECAUSE HE BOUGHT US

"Know ye not that...ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price..."

- A. Again – something they should have already known.
- B. The idea here is that of possession. This particular illustration goes against “political correctness” today because it invokes the idea of slavery – a person can be bought for a price – but that is exactly what happened when Jesus paid our sin debt.
- C. “Not your own” – do not belong to yourself – this is a reflexive pronoun where “your own” points back to “ye.” This is referring to the physical body – it is clearly NOT ours to do with as we see fit (this is another very clear argument against Christians believing abortion is their right).

Within the context of sexual impurity, and the strength of the argument being predicated upon that point, the commenters of the Geneva Bible said this: because we are not our own men, to give ourselves to any other, much less to Satan and the flesh, seeing that God himself has bought us, and that with a great price, to the end that both in body and soul, we should serve to his glory.

2 Corinthians 5:15

15 And that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.

Titus 2:14

14 Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

D. "For ye are bought with a price"

1. Henry Alford: Proof, that ye are not your own. The possession of your body as His temple, by the Holy Ghost, is a presumptive proof that ye are not; but there is also a proof in matter of fact: For ye were bought...with a price. This buying is here mentioned mainly with reference to the right of possession, which Christ has thereby acquired in us.
2. "Ye" – he continues to address the group as a whole – whether he is speaking to the pastor/elders of the church, or to the greater body is both unclear and really irrelevant to the point.
3. "Are bought"
 - a) Some versions have this as "were bought" because of the past tense of the verb used (or at least the indication that this particular use of the aorist tense is past in English). Either way, the reference is to the finished work of Christ on the cross – the "once for all" sacrifice that was made. The "are bought" reference points to the payment still being efficacious today, effective to the saving of all that will accept, while the past tense ("were bought") points to the payment that was made in the past.

Hebrews 10:10

¹⁰ By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

- b) The word "bought" is thrice translated

“redeemed” (Rev. 5:9; 14:3-4) which points to the believer being twice His – once by creation, and the second by the cross.

4. “With a price” – The CEV says “God paid a great price” – not a literal translation but an adequate commentary. The Bishops Bible says “ye are dearly bought.” The Geneva Bible (and others) read, “ye are bought for a price.” The price was the blood of Christ – the substitutionary atonement.

Acts 20:28

28 Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood.

Galatians 3:13

13 Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree:

Hebrews 9:12

12 Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us.

1 Peter 1:18-19

18 Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers;

19 But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:

Revelation 5:9

⁹ And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation;

III. WE ARE PURCHASED FOR A PURPOSE – TO GLORIFY GOD

A. "Therefore" – because we are bought with a price and we are not our own, and we don't have a right to do with our body and spirit what we want to, especially when it comes to devoting it to a life of sin and sexual impurity.

B. "Glorify God" – the issue of glorying is not to merely praise God for what He has done for us in redeeming us, but "glorify Him by your acts" (Alford).

C. "In your body, and in your spirit"

1. The only versions of the Bible that have this (and the next phrase) are those that use the Textus Receptus for their Greek text. The argument is that it doesn't appear in the older manuscripts from which the Critical Text comes. That is not a valid argument to make and since there are other Scriptures that point to this same truth, we will consider it part of the inspired Word of God.
2. Verse 17 references our body being joined unto the Lord "in one spirit" – therefore, both our body, which was purchased by the blood of Christ, and our spirit (which is the part of us that fellowships with he Lord by way of the indwelling Spirit of God), belong to Him.

D. "Which are God's" – we are no longer our own – we belong to another.

Conclusion: We are to live our life so as to please Him, and with the intent purpose of pointing others to Christ. If we lived like a believer, and demonstrated the love of God, as well as His holiness, we would be far more "successful" at seeing lost souls come to a saving knowledge of Christ. The indwelling Spirit of God enables us to do just that.

May we remember that we are not our own. We belong to God. We have been ransomed by sacred blood. By a reference to the value of that blood; by all its preciousness and worth; by all the sighs, and tears, and groans that bought us; by the agonies of the cross, and the bitter pains of the death of God's own Son, we are bound to live to God, and to him alone. When we are tempted to sin, let us think of the cross. When Satan spreads out his allurements, let us recall the remembrance of the sufferings of Calvary, and remember that all these sorrows were endured so that we might be pure. O how would sin appear were we beneath the cross, and did we feel the warm blood from the Saviour's open veins trickle upon us? Who would dare indulge in sin there? Who could do otherwise than devote himself, body, and soul, and spirit, unto God? (Albert Barnes)
